

WARMUP Practice the following lines.

tick tick lick lick sick sick kick kick jots jots lots lots lets lets jets jets pets pets raid raid said said sail sail calm quiz hold easy bait rope give wart jinx duck fate balk evil deep year omen zinc figs hoax jerk quit want cast quip drum yoke bevy axis fine zeal gust hour jaws flays hairy shame soaks rock them helm foam end tie eye cut balk fuzz crux dove bury quit joke gale hems nods pier walk bus 1 bus 2 bus 3 bus 4 bus 5 bus 6 bus 7 bus 8 bus 9 bus 10

PRETEST/POSTTEST

Lilian loved frills on her lilac collars. A lily worn on her label cost almost eleven dollars. A fellow billed a local lady for the lovely lily that was located for Lilian.
A local fellow was legally playing volleyball in the halls.
Elliott willfully fulfilled all his calls to the artful galleries.

PRACTICE

Lil l;l lll lkl lll ljl lol l.l lLl LIL LIL Lon Lan Lin lll loll lilt ladle libel frills lapels fulfill lullaby legally call well skill label recall limply likable liberal legally fell lull llama falls fellow lately locally loyally levelly
bell lily parallel willfully hillbilly illegally volleyball

30 SECOND OKS

Afford fulfill falsify fanciful official faithful plaintiff
Francis feels iffy about fifteen unofficial office raffles.
Rex enjoys playing with farm ducks by the quiet lazy river.
Freda Hyke was giving six major bronze plaques for casting.
Hal Rex knows bicycling means prize views and joyful quiet.

ONE MINUTE TIMING

The bold majority was voting to equalize exports of chicken.
Quiet Mike plays goofy clarinet with five Dixie jazz bands.
Pretty Delores quickly bought five extra wigwams in Juarez.